

JTA, March 5, 2009

Now that the inspector general for the Office of the Director of National Intelligence has said he is investigating Charles "Chas" Freeman, two of the congressman who requested the probe are asking him to expand it to look into Freeman's affiliation with a Chinese government-owned oil company. Reps. Mark Kirk (R-Ill.) and Steve Israel, who wrote separate letters on the Freeman matter to IG Edward Maguire this week, teamed up for a letter Thursday asking him to check out the business dealings of the Chinese National Offshore Oil Company -- on whose advisory board Freeman sits.